My name is David Torres. The Archdiocese of Miami is inviting me to serve Christ and His Church as a diocesan priest. This is my story.

In the Beginning

I grew up in Pembroke Pines, Florida, and was raised in a devout Catholic family. My parents taught me and my two older brothers the importance of faith and education. Prayer and learning were a part of our daily lives.

My Faith

I attended a Catholic High School and I remember when my teacher, a priest, told me that I had what it took to be a priest. At the time, my relationship with the Lord was more focused on what I needed and so I did not pay much attention to it. However, he had planted the seed of my vocational call in my heart.

“Mary was gently opening my eyes and heart to this beautiful invitation from her Son, calling me to the priesthood.”

—David Torres

My Vocation

I pursued my education both in Business Administration and Finance, but also studied Philosophy at the Franciscan University of Steubenville. It was at a men’s retreat that I had a turning point in my faith, and began taking it more seriously. I started to reflect on my life and wanted to find my purpose in this world. As I cultivated my prayer life, and particularly my devotion to the Blessed Mother, the thought of becoming a priest grew. It was like Mary was gently opening my eyes and heart to this beautiful invitation from her Son, calling me to the priesthood.

Called to Serve

I have been accepted to the Archdiocese of Miami Seminary. As a diocesan priest, I want to make the world a better place by serving the local community and bringing the people closer to Christ by the sacraments. I look forward to preaching homilies and bringing new members into God's family through Baptism and spreading a greater devotion to Our Blessed Mother.

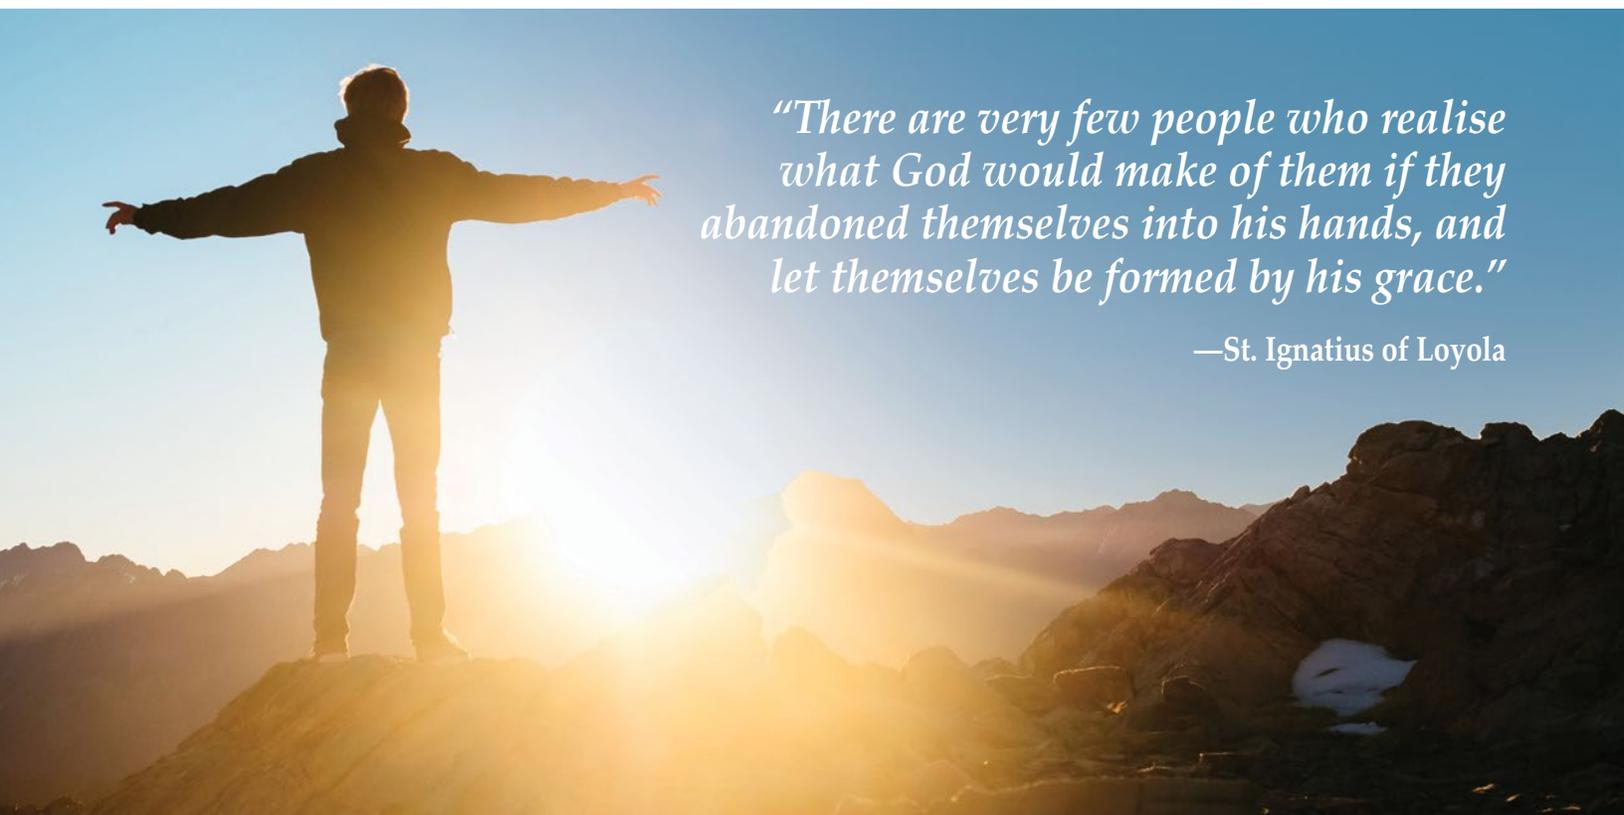

Prayer & Invitation

Please pray for me and my fellow Labouré classmates as we begin the journey to formation.

"There are very few people who realise what God would make of them if they abandoned themselves into his hands, and let themselves be formed by his grace."

—St. Ignatius of Loyola

I am an aspirant of Labouré

I am also a fundraiser for a class of aspiring priests, sisters and brothers. A recent study confirmed that nearly 1 of every 2 aspirants is blocked from entering seminaries and religious communities due to student loan debt. It is the only thing that prevents many from entering formation to become a priest, sister or brother. My classmates are discerning all over the country.

With your help, we will rebuild the Church!

My goal is to raise $60,000 (the average student loan amount) before December 31st of this year for The Labouré Society, a Catholic non-profit that helps aspirants like me to answer God's call.

Every aspirant has been accepted by a diocese or community and is required to work to liquidate their assets in order to make their own maximum loan payments. Through Labouré, my fellow aspirants and I work together as a class, raising donations which will be divided amongst the class and ultimately applied to our remaining student loans.

We are blessed to have this opportunity to share our love for God, our vocation stories, and to invite hundreds of individuals to support vocations like ours by financially investing in our future and the future of the Church.

Will you join our vocational journeys?

Please partner with us and be part of our vocation team so we can answer God's call together!
