My name is Chance Armstrong. I am discerning a call to serve Christ and His Church as a priest with the Diocese of Gaylord. This is my story.

In the Beginning

I grew up in Traverse City, Michigan surrounded by the natural beauty of rural community. Though I wasn't raised in the Faith, I was raised in familial love, friendship, and deep connection to the land. I became Catholic at the age of 30, when curiosity grew into love.

The Call

While living in New York City, I randomly felt a pull one day to enter St. Patrick's Cathedral. I attended Mass and was captivated. From that day on, my curiosity about the Catholic Faith grew. I embarked on a gradual journey of exploration, learning as much as I could about the Faith. With each step forward, I felt my relationship with God grow deeper. I was falling in love with God for the first time in my life.

I was finally brought into the Church in 2023, and soon after, began to feel that God was calling me to something deeper. I wasn't exactly unhappy with my life, but I wasn't at peace either. I knew there had to be something more that God wanted me to do—a bigger way to offer myself to the Lord.

A priest mentor told me that I needed to stop chasing the wrong things, and from that moment on, something shifted. Suddenly, for the first time, I could see that the life I had been building for myself might not be the life I was truly made for.

An Invitation

As I follow God's calling to the priesthood, I seek others to accompany me on this journey. May we meet so that I can share more? Until then, please keep me and my classmates in prayer, and feel free to reach out to me at Chance.Armstrong@rescuevocations.org.

Why is Labouré Needed?

Escalating education costs block many aspiring priests and religious from answering God's call.

Many religious communities cannot afford to assume their aspirants' loan debts

Most dioceses / eparchies will allow some debt but have a limited threshold for acceptance

Rising formation costs often limit missionary activities and care of aging priests and religious.

How does the Mission Work?

OUR ASPIRANTS

Are discerning a vocation and have been selected into a diocese / eparchy or religious institute

Are blocked from entering or continuing vocational formation due to student loans and/or formation expenses

Are trained by Labouré in Catholic-based fundraising and are provided with practical tools, personal mentoring and accountability

Share their vocation stories with thousands of Catholic benefactors, thereby building a culture of vocations and evangelization

As a class, aspirants raise funds collectively and receive awards from those funds to be applied to their educational debt

THE LABOURÉ SOCIETY

Works with aspirants to utilize all personal means to mitigate their loan amount upon joining the program

Trains each aspirant in Catholic-based philanthropy

Mentors each aspirant to build a unified class; each individual works toward the collective goal

Accompanies each aspirant through ongoing accountability and guidance to ensure successful completion of individual and class fundraising plans

Equips each aspirant with an online fundraising platform and multi-media fundraising tools

Facilitates ongoing aspirant/donor communication and updates after aspirant enters formation

What Has Labouré Accomplished?

350+ INSTITUTIONS

Supported by 350+ religious institutions & 80+ bishops to help deliver their aspirants debt-free.

SEPARATE FUNDING SOURCES

100% of aspirant-raised funds go to the direct benefit of aspirants in the program.

One organization - two separate silos of funds. Labouré supports vocations at no cost to the aspirant or their institution.

Labouré Staff raise separate funding for overhead and general operation expenses.

$15+ MILLION

Raised by 480 Labouré aspirants assisted into formation for the priesthood or religious life since 2003.

*According to 2022 Forbes Magazine, the national average education loan debt can be as high as $40k. For aspirants in the Labouré program the average debt is $80k-100k. The Labouré Society is a recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit, and is listed in the Official Catholic Directory. All donations are tax deductible. Gifts solicited by our aspirants belong to Labouré and are dispersed upon board-approved guidelines to ensure full compliance with IRS rulings. All gifts made to Labouré are non-refundable. Aspirants who leave Labouré are not required to repay any funds disbursed but are strongly encouraged to support Labouré however possible. Funds granted but not dispersed to a former aspirant are made available to other Labouré Aspirant needs.
