

Will you join my Vocation Journey?

| Community: Diocese of Laredo | Alma Mater: Texas A&M International University
| Email: Alejandro.Castineyra@rescuevocations.org | Phone: (956) 523-1330

My name is Alejandro Castiñeyra. I am discerning a call to serve Christ and His Church as a priest with the Diocese of Laredo. This is my story.

In the Beginning

I grew up in Laredo, Texas with a single parent and sibling. My mother raised us Catholic, taking us to Mass every Sunday, and even signed me up to become an altar server as a boy. I wasn't particularly motivated to learn more about my Faith as a child. This didn't change until I reached college and encountered a Protestant group that challenged my beliefs. That encounter lit a fire in my heart - a fire which soon, I couldn't ignore.

The Call

The idea of becoming a priest first occurred to me as a young child, and throughout my adolescence it would continue to pop into my mind. Each time, though, I would find a reason not to pursue the idea. Eventually, during college, my draw to the Church had grown so much that learning about the Faith became more interesting to me than my own major!

More and more frequently, a friend or priest would ask me if I was planning to become a priest. When they began to ask my mother the same question, I knew that it was really God asking. The pull towards the priesthood became harder and harder to ignore. Through prayer, God was ordering my desires to pursue the priesthood.

One day, after going to Confession, I heard the voice of God calling me to surrender my life to His will - so I did. Instead of fighting it, I was finally ready to embrace God's call!

“That encounter lit a fire in my heart - a fire which soon, I couldn't ignore.”

— Alejandro

An Invitation

As I follow God's calling to the priesthood, I seek others to accompany me on this journey. May we meet so that I can share more? Until then, please keep me and my classmates in prayer, and feel free to reach out to me at Alejandro.Castineyra@rescuevocations.org.

Why is Labouré Needed?

Escalating education costs block many aspiring priests and religious from answering God's call.

Many religious communities cannot afford to assume their aspirants' loan debts

Most dioceses / eparchies will allow some debt but have a limited threshold for acceptance

Rising formation costs often limit missionary activities and care of aging priests and religious.

How does the Mission Work?

OUR ASPIRANTS

Are discerning a vocation and have been selected into a diocese / eparchy or religious institute

Are blocked from entering or continuing vocational formation due to student loans and/or formation expenses

Are trained by Labouré in Catholic-based fundraising and are provided with practical tools, personal mentoring and accountability

Share their vocation stories with thousands of Catholic benefactors, thereby building a culture of vocations and evangelization

As a class, aspirants raise funds collectively and receive awards from those funds to be applied to their educational debt

THE LABOURÉ SOCIETY

Works with aspirants to utilize all personal means to mitigate their loan amount upon joining the program

Trains each aspirant in Catholic-based philanthropy

Mentors each aspirant to build a unified class; each individual works toward the collective goal

Accompanies each aspirant through ongoing accountability and guidance to ensure successful completion of individual and class fundraising plans

Equips each aspirant with an online fundraising platform and multi-media fundraising tools

Facilitates ongoing aspirant/donor communication and updates after aspirant enters formation

What Has Labouré Accomplished?

350+ INSTITUTIONS

Supported by 350+ religious institutions & 80+ bishops to help deliver their aspirants debt-free.

SEPARATE FUNDING SOURCES

100% of aspirant-raised funds go to the direct benefit of aspirants in the program.

One organization - two separate silos of funds. Labouré supports vocations at no cost to the aspirant or their institution.

Labouré Staff raise separate funding for overhead and general operation expenses.

$15+ MILLION

Raised by 480 Labouré aspirants assisted into formation for the priesthood or religious life since 2003.

*According to 2022 Forbes Magazine, the national average education loan debt can be as high as $40k. For aspirants in the Labouré program the average debt is $80k-100k. The Labouré Society is a recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit, and is listed in the Official Catholic Directory. All donations are tax deductible. Gifts solicited by our aspirants belong to Labouré and are dispersed upon board-approved guidelines to ensure full compliance with IRS rulings. All gifts made to Labouré are non-refundable. Aspirants who leave Labouré are not required to repay any funds disbursed but are strongly encouraged to support Labouré however possible. Funds granted but not dispersed to a former aspirant are made available to other Labouré Aspirant needs.