My name is Miles Shoban. I am discerning a call to serve Christ and His Church as a priest with the Archdiocese of Hartford. This is my story.

In the Beginning

I grew up in a Catholic family with three siblings. Going to Sunday Mass with my family was as typical as playing wiffleball in the yard after school or watching the U.S. Open with my dad at the end of summer. However, our faith was compartmentalized, though my mother sought to combat this by encouraging my brothers and I to altar serve and striving to pray a family rosary.

The Call

When I was ten, I took home a holy card of St. Dymphna from my parish church. Little did I know this simple prayer card would spark a regular prayer life within me as a teen. One night while praying, a question stirred within me: "What if I became a priest?" That was not my plan, though; I thought instead I would earn a large amount of money and donate to the Church. Yet I knew this response was not sufficient.

Later, I attended a retreat at my brother's college, where I experienced Eucharistic Adoration for the first time. I began to pray and attend Mass daily, slowly learning that my heart was made for Christ. On a pilgrimage on the Camino de Santiago, I visited a chapel where a Eucharistic miracle took place. After visiting and attending Mass here, I resolved to make a joyful 'yes' to whatever God's will was for me. By my junior year of college, I decided to apply to seminary.

"One night while praying, a question stirred within me: 'What if I became a priest?'"

An Invitation

As I follow God's calling to the priesthood, I seek others to accompany me on this journey. May we meet so that I can share more? Until then, please keep me and my classmates in prayer, and feel free to reach out to me at Miles.Shoban@rescuevocations.org.

Why is Labouré Needed?

Escalating education costs block many aspiring priests and religious from answering God's call.

Many religious communities cannot afford to assume their aspirants' loan debts

Most dioceses / eparchies will allow some debt but have a limited threshold for acceptance

Rising formation costs often limit missionary activities and care of aging priests and religious.

How does the Mission Work?

OUR ASPIRANTS

Are discerning a vocation and have been selected into a diocese / eparchy or religious institute

Are blocked from entering or continuing vocational formation due to student loans and/or formation expenses

Are trained by Labouré in Catholic-based fundraising and are provided with practical tools, personal mentoring and accountability

Share their vocation stories with thousands of Catholic benefactors, thereby building a culture of vocations and evangelization

As a class, aspirants raise funds collectively and receive awards from those funds to be applied to their educational debt

THE LABOURÉ SOCIETY

Equips each aspirant with an online fundraising platform and multi-media fundraising tools
